

King Rama V (1853 - 1910)

King Rama V of Thailand, called "The Great Beloved King", who abolished slavery in Thailand and founded a modern state. "Thank you, but no Thank you" was his reply to Queen Victoria who suggested that Thailand be included in the British Empire. Thailand was never a colony of any other country!

"I would love to go into a long opinion on this and that, however freedom of speech is not for all countries."
